

CALLING ALL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS & CARERS OF YOUNG PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY & DIABETES

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

We want to learn about your experiences with supporting young people with an intellectual disability and diabetes.

Your insights will help us create better and more accessible diabetes education and support programs.

You will recieve a $50 Woolworths voucher for your time

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Health professionals and carers (parents, guardians or other unpaid carers) who have supported someone with an intellectual disability and diabetes in the past 5 years. You must have cared for a young person aged between 5–24 years. You can speak English or another language.

WHY THIS RESEARCH MATTERS

There is currently no tailored diabetes education program for young people with intellectual disability.
Your voice will help create real change in health services.

WHAT YOU WILL BE ASKED TO DO

You will complete a telephone interview taking about 60 minutes.

INTERESTED?

Contact Dr Emily Burch
0490 089 042 or emily.burch@scu.edu.au

Approval to conduct this research has been provided by Southern Cross University with reference number 2026/114, in accordance with its ethics review and approval procedures. Any person considering participation in this research project, or agreeing to participate, may raise any questions or issues with the researchers at any time. In addition, any person not satisfied with the response of researchers may raise ethics issues or concerns and may make any complains about this research project by contacting the Human Ethics office at SCU on (02) 6620 3611 or by emailing human.ethics@scu.edu.au.

Southern Cross University